Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic Names New Clinic Director

Trevino takes helm at Family Medical Center

WALLA WALLA – Gabriela Trevino saw firsthand what it was like for people without access to health care.

Trevino has always set out to increase access to those that need health care the most. That’s what brought her to Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic and Family Medical Center as the new Clinic Director in Walla Walla.

She comes to Family Medical Center with a Master of Science in Health Care Administration from the University of Texas at Arlington, in Arlington, Texas.

Trevino is most excited about working with an organization that adopts the Patient Centered Medical Home model of care. Families at Family Medical Center have access to a host of services, and Trevino says that’s the best part.

“I feel very privileged to have the opportunity to work in and support this community. I get genuine joy, fulfillment, and the feeling of making a difference with my job.”
