FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic Welcomes New Clinic Director

Jolene Babka is appointed Clinic Director for the Tri-Cities area.

TRI-CITIES - Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is proud to announce Jolene Babka as the new Clinic Director for the Tri-Cities area, overseeing Miramar Health Center, Columbia Basin Pediatric Dentistry, Community Dental Clinic, and Dentistry for Kids.

Babka brings an extensive background in healthcare operations and human resources having worked in the dental and medical industries for over 10 years.

Babka is excited to start her journey as Clinic Director. "I am so impressed with Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic. I love the community health perspective that strives to bring as much full focus care and convenience for our patients," Babka said.

While thinking on the future of her position, Babka stated, "I am proud to be part of an organization that prides themselves on being a champion of care, resources, and empowerment for the community."

Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is one of the Pacific Northwest's largest community health centers, providing medical, dental, behavioral health, and social services to more than 171,000 people a year. With more than 60 unique service locations across Oregon (Clatsop, Marion, Multnomah, Umatilla, and Yamhill counties) and Washington (Benton, Franklin, Spokane, Whitman, Walla Walla, and Yakima counties), we deliver affordable, comprehensive primary care for underserved populations in our communities. We also extend our network of care through our mobile health units and virtual visit technology, bringing essential care to our more remote patients. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic employs over 1,600 staff in addition to our medical and dental residents, administrative fellows, students, and volunteers. All of whom are dedicated to bringing quality care to those in our communities who need it most. Yakima Valley Farm Workers Clinic is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization recognized by HRSA, The Joint Commission, and The National Committee for Quality Assurance for our accomplishments in community health care.
